

Don Raymundo, CCRN, CEN

Clinical Simulation Educator, Medical Surgical Simulation Center at the Naval Medical Center

Commander Raymundo was commissioned in the Nurse Corps in 1991, a graduate of Mt. Eden High School, Hayward, CA, he completed his Bachelors of Science degree in Nursing at Saint Mary of The Plains College, Wichita, KS, followed by completion of a Masters, in Business Management, Webster's University, St. Louis, MO. Additionally he attended the Army Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, KS, completing the Joint Operations Military Education Program.

20 years as Navy Nurse in Critical Care and Emergency Nursing he deployed multiple times throughout the world in support for the Navy, Marines, Army, and coalition forces. Additionally he has worked jointly with international medical teams during several large humanitarian missions. He also served as the White House Nurse for the Clinton administration providing medical protective services working collaboratively with the United States Secret Service. Extensive clinical and educational experience as a Critical Care Registered Nurse (CCRN) and Certified Emergency Room Nurse (CEN), he has served in a multitude positions. His work history includes:

- Naval Medical Center San Diego
- Naval Medical Center Bethesda
- Landstuhl Regional Medical Center Germany
- Naval Hospital Newport Rhode Island
- Naval Hospital Guantanamo Bay Cuba
- Naval Hospital Naples Italy
- Branch Medical Clinic Iwakuni Japan
- His ship-board experience includes the USS Tripoli LPH-10, USS Pelelieu LHA-5 and USNS Mercy TA-19.

Today Commander Raymundo utilizes his vast clinical, management and operational experience as the nursing Clinical Simulation Educator at the Medical Surgical Simulation Center at Naval Medical Center San Diego.

www.laerdal.com/sun