

Nancy Threefoot, BSN, RN, PHN, CCRN

Clinical Development Specialist, Simulation Educator, Fairview Southdale Hospital

Nancy Threefoot is a Clinical Development Specialist and simulation educator for Fairview Southdale Hospital in Minnesota. She has worked for over 30 years in nursing with critical care nursing as her specialty. Nancy has become an important educational resource to the Fairview Health System in Minnesota.

She is a leader in developing and conducting simulation education for staff development. She works collaboratively with clinical nurse leaders to develop insitu simulation, on-line learning and critical care nursing education. Additionally, she organized a statewide simulation network meeting and is currently obtaining her MSN in education.

www.laerdal.com/sun

